There will be written assignments for the monologues and scenes

Written work will be due on your workshop day.
REQUIRED TEXTS:
Although there is no required text for this course, there may be assigned readings and handouts for which you will be responsible. In addition, you will be responsible for finding and/or reading plays for class material (for monologues). Scene material will come from a play selected by instructor. All class material must come from published plays.

REQUIRED VIEWING:

You are required to attend 2 UF School of Theatre and Dance production listed below. You will be required to write a one page critique of the acting (on one actor) to show you understand the concepts you have been learning. This is not a report. I will hand out guidelines for the paper before the show opens. The papers are due in class on Wednesday, after the show closes (Please see the calendar). All students must arrive at least 10 minutes before the show begins. DO NOT BE LATE. Some shows do not allow late seating. DO NOT TEXT ever during the show. Ever. You will be given ticket vouchers for the UF shows. The cost to you will be $2 for each show.

UF Production Dates:
Sept. 20-29 Miss Witherspoon- Black Box Theatre
Oct. 4-13 Never the Sinner – Black Box Theatre
Oct. 18-27 Guys and Dolls – Constans Theatre
Nov. 15-17 Agbedidi Africa - Constans Theatre

You will receive coupons to purchase discounted tickets for $2.00. Do not lose the coupons. They cannot be replaced.

Keep your ticket stub. You must have the house manager/usher sign your ticket stub to prove you were at the performance to receive credit.

There will be a quiz given in class on the Monday immediately following the final performance of a production. The questions will relate to the specific production (not just the play), so your good performance will require your attendance and full attention.

ATTENDANCE POLICY
Attendance will be taken daily. Due to the participatory nature of this course, attendance is mandatory. You are expected to be in class on time and ready to work. You are allowed two unexcused absences. If more than two absences occur, 30 points will be deducted from your final grade for each additional absence. Please use these allowed absences wisely as absolutely no exceptions will be made. In order for an absence to be excused, you must turn in the proper written documentation in a timely fashion (i.e., team travel, band, academic field trips, doctor’s excuse, etc.)

In addition to 2 unexcused absences, you will be allowed 2 late arrivals. Upon your 3rd late arrival, 30 points will be deducted from your final grade. (In other words, three tardy arrivals equal one absence.) Please note that it is your responsibility to notify me after class that you arrived late. If you come in late and I’m unaware, you will receive an absence for that day.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS
No late or make-up assignments will be accepted without an excused absence. In the event of an excused absence, late assignments will be accepted or performed no later than one class period after the date on which it was due.

DRESS CODE
Dress appropriately for an acting class. Wear comfortable clothes and shoes that allow you to move with ease. On final performance days, appropriate professional attire and/or costume are required.

EXPECTATIONS REGARDING PREPARATION:
All final showings of monologues and scenes should include full memorization of script, costuming and set blocking. In the work sessions prior to final showings, there should be an escalating level of expectation regarding memorization/preparation.

EXTRA CREDIT
“For 30 points, a student may write a critique of actor performances that are not part of the term’s required viewing. These theatre performances can include, but are not limited to, productions at the Hippodrome Theatre, Acrosstown Repertory Company, Gainesville Community Playhouse, and the Phillips Center for the Performing Arts. Check with instructor regarding approved performances. To receive full credit, a student must turn in a two page double-spaced critique of an actor’s (or actors') performance(s) with ticket stub. These should be analyses, not be plot summaries, exercising course concepts and vocabulary. Limit 1 paper per term.

GRADE SCALE:
CLASS DECORUM
This class is of an exploratory and experimental nature. Exercises require full participation and often a sense of humor and a sense of “play”. In order to foster a trusting and creative environment, respect of the instructor and of fellow students is essential. Please feel free to see me with any reservations you may have about the explorations in this class.

Also, respect your classmates as you would have them respect you. Give your full attention to your classmates as they work. There will be zero tolerance of cell phone use (including texting), sleeping, eating, drinking, doing work for other classes, reading, or disruptive talking in class. If you engage in any of these behaviors, your overall final grade will be reduced by 20 points for each offense.

Notes must be taken by hand. No laptops, tablet computers, or other electronic devices can be open once class has begun.

No food or drink is allowed in the classroom. Water only is permitted.

HONOR CODE:
As a result of completing the registration form at the University of Florida, every student has signed the following statement:

“I understand that the University of Florida expects its students to be honest in all their academic work. I agree to this commitment to academic honesty and understand that my failure to comply with this commitment may result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the University.”

If you cheat on a test or quiz, or plagiarize material, i.e., use someone else's words or ideas without attribution, you will automatically receive a failing grade in this class. Ignorance of the definition of plagiarism or the absence of intent to deceive does not constitute an acceptable defense in matters of scholarly dishonesty.
