Description: This course explores the field of arts in healthcare/arts in medicine and the links between the creative and healing arts, focusing on the many ways that the arts can be used to enhance the healing process in healthcare or community settings. It includes workshops, lecture/discussion, video viewing, readings, homework assignments, and group projects. This course is appropriate for students of the arts, humanities, sciences, and health related professions.

Objectives:
1. To develop an introductory understanding of the history of the use of the arts to enhance health and healing and with the development of the contemporary arts in healthcare movement.
2. To become acquainted with the theoretical and scientific bases for the use of the arts as enhancements to healing.
3. To develop an introductory understanding of professional practice and programming in the contemporary arts in healthcare field.
4. To become acquainted with research studies and practice methods in the field.
5. To engage in creative activity and self-reflection related to creativity and health.
6. To engage in creative thought and program planning in the arts in healthcare.

Course Website: We will use a UF E-Learning course website for discussions, communications, accessing course materials, and submission of some assignments. You are expected to check the website and your email between class meetings.

- You will need to have an active Gatorlink ID to access the course on Sakai.
- If you do not have a Gatorlink ID or cannot remember your login information, or your ID doesn’t work: go to the Gatorlink website (http://gatorlink.ufl.edu) or call 392-HELP
- To access the course go to http://lss.at.ufl.edu and click on one of the Sakai links. From there, click on University of Florida. Then you will be asked to enter your Gatorlink information. The course is HUM 2592, section 03B6.
- For additional assistance with using the UF E-Learning system, go to https://lss.at.ufl.edu/help/Student_Faq
Course Policies:

1. Attendance: Attendance is a component of your grade in this highly experiential course, and is absolutely mandatory. The only way you can achieve the course objectives is to be present at class. Additionally, we will be having a number of accomplished guests who have agreed to give workshops and presentations to the class. Please respect their valuable time.

2. Communication: It is the student’s responsibility to communicate with the instructor promptly concerning any circumstances that might effect his or her participation in the course. Please do not let any questions or concerns you have go unattended. It is the instructor’s intention to respond to all e-mail communication within 48 hours, excluding weekends.

3. The spontaneity clause: Due to the experiential nature of this course, the instructors retain the right to alter this syllabus as needed to accommodate class pace, interests, and/or special challenges or opportunities that may arise.

4. The R-E-S-P-E-C-T clause: In order for all of us to have a positive experience in this course, we must all demonstrate respect for each other. This includes common courtesy and contemporary courtesy – no texting will be permitted during class, and laptops, iPads, or other devises may be used only when indicated by the instructor.

5. The “if it’s due, it’s due” clause: Late work will be accepted only when permission has been requested and granted in advance of the due date and only under extenuating circumstances.

6. All assignments submitted via E-Learning, including quizzes, must be submitted by 11:55pm on the due date. Please note one exception: your Journal Club documents must be submitted via E-Learning by 1pm on the day that you are scheduled to present.

7. Adhere to standards of academic honesty per university guidelines (below)

Evaluation: Total of 250 points

See the Assignment Guide for full assignment guidelines and grading criteria.

1. Experiential Exercise/Class Dialogues (40 points): You will work in a pair or small group on an assigned specific topic-based question or idea. As a group, you will work outside of class and on the discussion board to discuss the topic question and to prepare to facilitate a creative exercise and discussion with the whole class. You will have 20 minutes in which to facilitate the creative activity and to engage the class in discussion through prepared prompts. The group will submit a final consensus statement by Sunday at 11:55pm at the end of the week in which you facilitate.

2. History Quiz (20 points)

3. Scope of Practice Quiz (20 points)

4. Creative Process Blog (12 entries @ 5 points each = 60 points): You will engage in a personal creative practice in an art form of choice throughout the semester, and share it with the class through 12 weekly entries on the Sakai Blog site and an informal presentation in class.

5. Journal Club (30 pts.): Find and read 2 arts in healthcare related research studies and present to the class in journal club style: Statement of the problem, methods and materials, results, conclusions. You will hand in an annotated bibliography, literature review rubric, and create a handout for your classmates. Please note that E-Learning submissions for this assignment are due by 1pm on the day you present.

6. Group Project (60 pts.): Here is your opportunity to collaboratively envision and develop a project plan suited to your interests related to the arts and health. You will work in a team to design a program and present it to the class.

7. Active Participation (20 pts.) You are expected to participate actively in class discussions and activities. This part of your grade will reflect your level of participation in class activities and discussions, group processes and projects, and your attendance. Your grade will be assigned based on the criteria in the rubric below. There will be ONE “stuff happens” allowance for attendance. All absences beyond that will result in a deduction of 2 points from your participation grade. Incomplete participation (tardiness, leaving early, etc.) will result in a loss of at least 1 pt. per occurrence.

University Policies and Services

Netiquette: Communication Courtesy

Written communication and electronic interaction are central to courses involving online learning and communication. All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, online discussions and chats. See the assignment guide for further guidelines on communication courtesy for online coursework.

Students with disabilities

Students requesting accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation. Students may also contact the UF Disability Resource Center at 352-392-8565 directly.

Academic Honesty

All students sign the following statement upon registration at the University of Florida: “I understand that the University of Florida expects its students to be honest in all their academic work. I agree to adhere to this commitment to academic honesty and understand that my failure to comply with this commitment may result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the University.” As instructor for this course, I fully support the intent of the above statement and will not tolerate academic dishonesty. The university’s policies regarding academic honesty, the honor code, and student conduct related to the honor code will be strictly enforced. Full information regarding these policies is available at the following link: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/advising/info/student-honor-code.aspx.
General Course Questions

There are two ways in which you can ask general questions of the instructors. If you have a general question related to an assignment, reading or other course material that may be relevant to other class members, you may post it under Course Questions on the Discussion Board. If your question is specific to your own work, progress, circumstances, grade, or is personal in nature, please email the instructors privately using the Mail function in Sakai.

Course Complaints
Should you have any complaints with your experience in this course, please visit http://www.distance.ufl.edu/student-complaints to submit a complaint.

Technical Assistance

If you have difficulty accessing online course reading or materials, please reference the citation or document name and author in a Google Search to locate the document before contacting the instructor or the Help Desk.

If you have computer difficulties submitting assignments or navigating E-Learning, notify UF Computer Help Desk at helpdesk@ufl.edu, 352-392-4357 – select option 2, and/or https://lss.at.ufl.edu/help.shtml. Please include the case number provided to you by the UF Help Desk documenting your request for assistance.

Any requests for make-ups due to technical issues MUST be accompanied by the ticket number received from LSS when the problem was reported to them. The ticket number will document the time and date of the problem. You MUST e-mail your instructor within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if you wish to request a make-up.
