Catalog Description: Practice and principles of fundamentals and stylistic characteristics common to ballet, jazz and modem dance. (H) 3 credits

Objectives:
· To provide a student, that has no previous dance background, with the basic techniques and history of ballet jazz and modem.
· Enhance your mind/body connection by practicing proper alignment and analyzing the different principles of dance while learning the basic anatomy of the human body. This knowledge will relate directly to the movements in class.
· Practice elements of performing and explore performance quality, discovering you own potential and personal style while developing your kinesthetic memory.
· Experience, discuss and write about live dance performances.

Dance Etiquette and Attire: Dance is an art and requires personal discipline and motivation. Respect for other students and the instructor is of the utmost importance. When in class you will be attentive and active. Be aware of the appropriate times to talk and/or sit. Attire should be form fitting, allowing the line of the body to be seen. Leotards and tights (leggings or jazz pants) are suitable. Form fitting warmers are recommended and should be removed after warm-up. No shoes are required for this course. No large jewelry, no chewing gum, no hats, and no loose hair. Personal hygiene is expected and is its own reward. You may lose points for improper attire, hair or attitude.

Attendance Policy
· MANDATORY. Participation is the only way to meet the objectives of this class. This requires you to be in class on time in the proper attire and with your attention focused on dance. You should be warming up and stretching to prepare yourself for class. The development of the class depends on your participation.
· You must be present for all scheduled classes, plus required concerts, auditions, and events.
· It is your responsibility to know your schedule. Check your UF email & the dance studio bulletin boards.
· Each unexcused absence will result in a loss of five points.
· You are responsible for all material covered in class during you absence. You are advised to ask other students for material missed in class. It is not the teacher responsibility to re-teach you when you are absent.
· To be considered an excused absence (medical and/or family emergencies), the instructor must receive appropriate and legit documentation. Weddings, flight schedules, birthdays, etc are NOT excused absences. The absent will be unexcused until documentation is received. There are NO makeup classes. Additional points for excused absences can be earned by attending an approved performance and writing a 1-page review, typed, 12pt, double spaced and handed in with ticket stub one week after performance.
· Prolonged illness or injury may result in dropping the class. (An incomplete is rare.). • AN INCOMPLETE WILL NOT BE GIVEN WITHOUT MEDICAL DOCUMENTATION. If approved, College of Fine Arts Incomplete Contract must be signed by the Director, Instructor, and Student.

- You are tardy if you are not present for roll call. When late you must clear entry into class – it is at the instructors discretion whether you will be allowed to participate in class if you are more than ten minutes late. This is for your own safety.
- Three (3) points will be deducted for being late or leaving early (for any reason)
- Other classes that schedule events during this class will be considered an absence and are not excused. Field trips with school events must be documented by the school and documentation must be sent directly to me. UF approved religious days are excused and do not need to be made-up. (Travel time not included.) Student is still responsible for material covered during their absence.
- If unable to dance, with instructor permission, you may ‘actively’ observe one time for full credit.

You will complete an observation paper due at the end of class. Check with instructor for instructions. You may not receive credit for attendance if you arrive ten minutes into the scheduled class time.
You may not use this time for napping or "study hall", otherwise it will be considered an absence.
- Absences from exams result in a zero. If you miss the final exam you cannot pass this course.

MEDICAL ADVISORIES

Students, along with faculty and staff are urged to follow the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention’s newest guidelines: see http://www.ehs.ufl.edu/H1N1/ . Those guidelines recommend that people with H1N1 or influenza-like illness remain at home until at least 24 hours after they are free of fever (100° F [37.8°C]), or signs of a fever without the use of fever-reducing medications. Because most cases of H1N1 do not require medical attention, students who have missed class due to illness, but do not have the appropriate medical documentation will not be penalized. Faculty will be flexible with those students who have followed these guidelines and chosen to remain at home even if they do not have the proper medical documentation.

Text: The DAA1000 Handbook was prepared especially for this class and will be available online at: http://www.arts.ufl.edu/theatreanddance/downloads/syllabi.aspx. Click on DAA1000 - Fundamentals of Dance Handbook. All supplements to the text will be sent via your UF email or handed out in class. You are responsible for all handouts. Please bring a notebook and a pen to every class.

Communication is very important. Please come to me with all questions and concerns throughout the semester. You can make an appointment or talk to me immediately before or after class about your progress or if you have any questions. If questions pertain to the information in this syllabus, I ask that you read your syllabus thoroughly before asking an intelligent question on clarification. You are encouraged to ask questions during class and if you need or want more feedback from the instructor, please do not be afraid to ask. Remember, unless you communicate and come to me directly, I will assume that you are satisfied and happy. I want you to have a great dance experience.

ALL ABOVE DATES ARE SUBJECT TO VARIATION.

ASSIGNMENT AND TESTS – ALL PAPERS MUST BE HANDED IN AS A HARD COPY.

Technique Evaluation - (10 points) An ongoing in-class evaluation primarily for checking our communication goals and your degree of successful effort. Absences could affect this grade.

Performance Evaluation - (10 point) This will include the choreography of three or four combination taught throughout the class. One combination will be chosen by each dancer to be performed on the final presentation day (Apr 19th ). You will be evaluated on your knowledge of the choreography, your ability to receive and apply creative feedback, your energy and enthusiasm for the performance quality of the piece and you actual performance during the show. Your absence during rehearsal or performance will affect your 10 points.

Written Test - (20 points - 10 each) There will be two written tests based on text and review and discussion during the class. The first will be a Principles Test on Chapters 1-4, in class exercises and handouts. The second will be a History Test on Chapters 5-6, in-class videos and handouts.

Compare and Contrast Paper (20 points) You are to write a compare and contrast paper on TWO live performances. You have one required performance and one of your choice. See the list of performances this Spring below or visit the websites listed above to find info about upcoming performances. Student tickets are available at the UFPA with a student ID. I recommend that you secure your tickets ASAP. Papers are due two weeks (forth class) after the second performance. All papers must be a minimum of three pages, typed, double spaced. You MUST hand in your ticket stubs in class. You MUST write your name and student ID on your ticket stubs. Points will be deducted for lack of ticket stubs. If a show does not require tickets you must hand in the front page of the program. NO!!!! full programs, PLEASE.

Class Observation Paper (5 points) You are to observe one basic, intermediate or advanced class and type a one page, double spaced paper on class content and personal impression. You must attend the entire class, take notes and have the instructor sign your notes at the end of class. Your notes will be handed in with a one page typed observation/opinion paper. Due dates are listed below.

Final Project (35 points) Groups of 3 -5 students will collaboratively choreograph a 1 ½ - 2 minute composition. It is up to you to choose your own group of dancers to work with. If you need assistance, let me know. Group selections are due by Feb 10th . There will be time in class available for working on projects, but also be prepared to meet outside of class if needed. The time spent in class working on your project is part of participation/attire and will affect your final grade. Absences are discouraged during this time and will affect your final project grade. Groups can choose any one of the dance styles covered in class or a combination of dance styles. Everyone is expected and required to have input. This is a group project. It is about everyone in the group. Work Together! Make sure you exchange phone numbers/email addresses with other members in your group. Compositions will be presented to the rest of the class, friends and family on April 19th . Also,
every dancer needs to hand in a one page typed, double space journal on their final project experience. This is your final performance for this class. Include costumes, props (if needed) and whatever else your dance needs. Han FUN and be creative. This is your opportunity.

Reading You are required to keep up with the reading of the text. Material in the text will be continually referenced in class and we will also have lectures and discussions on each chapter. Read this syllabus thoroughly!

Makeup Papers for excused absences are due one week after the show(any dance performance, play or musical) that you are critiquing. You are to write a summary/review that is 1 page, typed, double spaced, 12 pt. Please write “Makeup Paper” under your name.
